Global Mobility Solutions expands headquarters

Global Mobility Solutions, a leader in corporate relocation solutions and technology, held an open house this fall to celebrate the expansion of its global headquarters. Scottsdale Mayor Jim Lane performed the ribbon-cutting ceremony to officially commemorate the new office. "It's always great to see success here in Scottsdale," Lane said at the ceremony. "In this particular case, 30 years ago, I had a consulting company and these guys were my clients. So I take a little responsibility for their success."

Mark Heigel, president and CEO of the Scottsdale Chamber of Commerce, also offered congratulations at the event, which provided office tours, food and beverages and networking opportunities.

"This is a big milestone for Global Mobility Solutions," said GMS president Steven Westor. "Not only are we celebrating our 30th anniversary this year, but to expand by 30 percent is a testament to all our wonderful employees. This growth is also attributed to innovative technology solutions and our strong client partnerships."
